Four Years (A Reflection)

I.

I am the Dawn.
No yesterdays exist for me;
No distant morrow shades my light.
I represent Eternity-
Beginning now,
I am Today.

II.

"Birth is mine," the jester cries-
A yawning Court is called to rise.
The dwindling awe of last year's ways
Is lost within the second phase.
Superior, the new found sense
Of hearts secure in confidence.
Experience will come in time,
The rest is merely pantomime.

III.

Freedom Train shook into town,
Excitement gripped the air,
And we were tempted glory-bound
With no time left to spare.
Freedom Train — we climbed aboard;
Time flashed by the glass-
Daring dreams, like cargo stored,
On our way, at last.

IV.

All those scenes
As if . . . in haze
rolling past, rolling onward
Ever-rolling days,
Fondly held
To be . . . released
Touching souls, touching memories
Last but never least.
These will stay with us
Should tomorrow turn to dust . . .

Freshman Class History

In September of 1978, we entered the high school as freshmen. Being in an unfamiliar place, we wandered through the halls dazed for several days. We did not feel so bad when we learned that our Vice-Principal, Mr. Leo Bachant, was also new here. He was appointed to replace Mr. David Hazel, who became the new Principal in place of Mr. John Gibbons, who had recently retired.

As freshmen, we encountered many of the activities of the high school. At the end of September, we elected the following to represent our class: Robert Williamson — President, Patrick McNamara — Vice-President, Alison Christie — Treasurer, and Ellen McQuoid — Secretary. At this time, we were also informed that Miss Anne Lugi and Mr. James Brodrick had taken on the task of advising our class for the next four years.

At the beginning of November, we were introduced to another high school event — Spirit Week — where all of the classes compete in various activities to see which class is the most spirited. Being inexperienced, we placed last, but we vowed to come back next year and do much better.

However, we could not let the other classes forget us in sports. That year, we sported a 9-1 record in Freshman Football and the Junior Varsity Volleyball team was undefeated. Also, a Flag Corp was formed to perform at half-time during the football games.

We also enjoyed cheering on the varsity teams. We were particularly proud of the boys Varsity Basketball team, whose successful season merited them a berth in the Clark Tournament and advanced them to the finals of the District 3 Basketball Tournament. Though defeated by the Ayer High School Panthers, we realized what it meant to be a Gael.

Under the direction of our advisors, our class began to raise funds for our future events. We had an energy raffle, a bake sale, and we sold green and gold balloons at the football games. All of these events were great successes.

As we concluded our Freshman year at CHS, we were full of confidence and looked forward, with great excitement, to our future years in the high school.

Sophomore Class History

In September of '79, we entered CHS feeling a little more at ease since we were no longer the newcomers to the school.

By the end of the month we finally started to get organized. We placed our confidence in our newly elected officers to lead us through the up-coming year; President — Alison Christie, Vice-President — Patrick McNamara, Treasurer — Joan McNally, and Secretary — Ellen McQuoid.

As spirit week approached once again, our class was determined to improve its standing in the competition. We were a little more organized and showed greater spirit than the previous year. Just about everything went smoothly at the rally until our class poster "stood up" — or more correctly, fell down — and got noticed. Despite this small stroke of bad luck we pulled through and were able to place 3rd in the competition.

As sophomores we were now given the chance to show our acting ability in the Interclass Dramatics competition. We chose for our play, "Snowy White and the Seven Chicks." Even though we placed 3rd, those who participated enjoyed their small taste of stardom.

In the spring, under the leadership of coach Caesar Ditullio, the girls softball team showed it's excellence by capturing the Midland league title.

As the end of our sophomore year approached, we all looked forward to a relaxing summer, but we eagerly anticipated the most important events of our junior year — the Homecoming and the Prom.

Homecoming

November 1, 1980 — Wonderful Tonite

On the night of November 1, 1980, our first formal dance was held at Clinton High School. This night was the climax of Spirit Week activities with our class capturing the title of the "Most Spirited." Although the Gaels were defeated in the annual Homecoming game, our spirits remained high as we danced to the sounds of Glass Leaf until midnight. Before the evening was over, we selected the queen and her court. Chosen as queen was Lisa Tambolleo, and the members of her court were Christine St. Cyr, Cheryl Parker, Kim O'Malley, Judy Bailey, Eileen Gibbons and Peggy Lipka.

Junior Class History

We eagerly anticipated our Junior year especially our upcoming events — Homecoming and Prom. We started the year off right by electing our class officers — Barry Whitney — President, John Alzapiedi — Vice-President, Greg Nugent — Treasurer and Ellen McQuoid — Secretary.

As Juniors, we were given the task of organizing spirit week. Through hard work and effort by all, we were able to defeat the seniors and reign as the "Most Spirited." The culmination of spirit week came with our Homecoming dance. We danced all night to the music of Glass Leaf. The ending of a great week and dance came when Glass Leaf played our theme — "Wonderful Tonight."

Our thoughts now turned to Interclass Dramatics. We had our hopes set on doing better than the previous year. We chose to do a take-off on the hit television series, "Mork and Mindy." With the announcement that we had won Best Play and that John Alazpiedi had received an award for the Best Actor, we knew that this was our year.

May soon arrived and we anticipated our Junior Prom, which was held at the Wachusett Country Club. We chose "Precious and Few" as our theme and we danced all night to the music of Joshua Tree. It was a night that we shall never forget.

At graduation exercises in June, three of our fellow classmates were honored for their academic achievements. Laurie Giovannucci; Havard Book Award, Pamela Gannon; Harvard Book Award, and James Lucci; Holy Cross Book Award.

As our Junior year concluded, we recalled many of our great moments. However, we looked forward to the coming of our Senior year with great excitement.

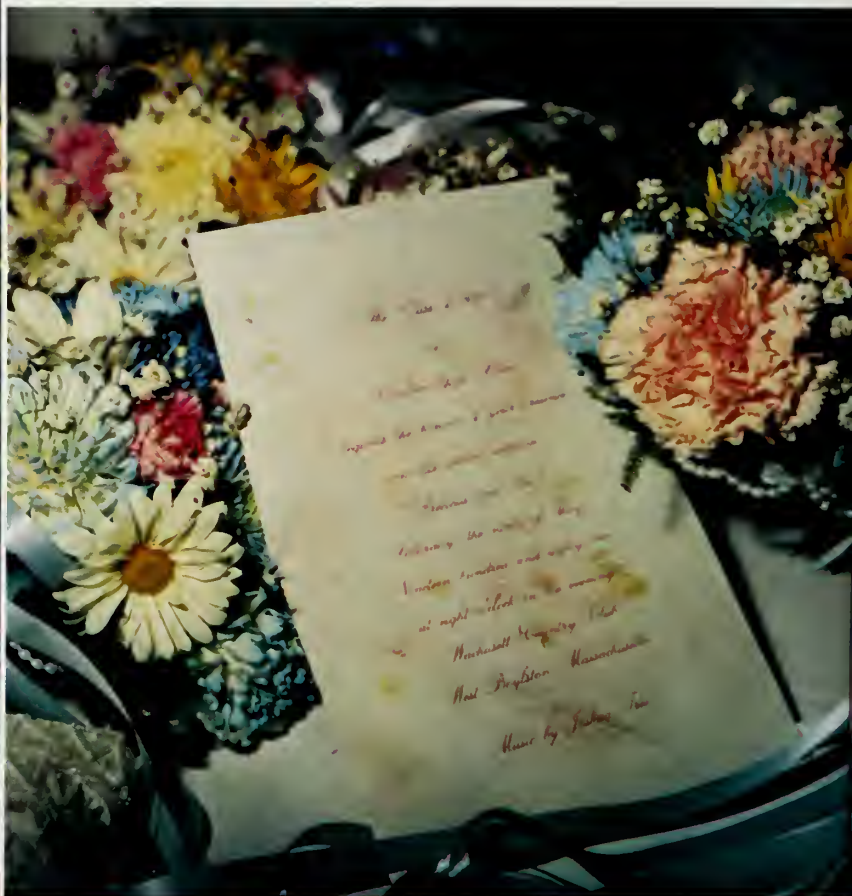
Junior Prom

May 9, 1981
Precious & Few

At the closing of our Junior Year, we were excited with the arrival of that special evening which we had so highly anticipated. On May 9, 1981, our Junior Prom was held at the Wachusett Country Club. The music of Joshua Tree rang through the air and as this memorable night began to come to an end, the queen and her court were chosen. Selected as queen was Cathy Johnson. The members of her court were Lisa Milewski, Lisa Tambolleo, Kathy Janda, Lisa Silvester, Judy Bailey, and Eileen Gibbons. Although the dance ended at midnight, our memories of the Junior Prom will last a lifetime.



Senior Class History

With the beginning of Senior year we realized that our days behind the walls of CHS were numbered. Late in September we elected the following officers to lead us through our last year at CHS — Barry Whitney-President, John Alzapiedi — Vice President, Greg Nugent — Treasurer, Cindy Mahan — Secretary.

Before we knew it the weeks progressed and Spirit Week was upon us for the last time. With much determination we worked diligently to uphold our reign as "Most Spirited." However, as fate would have it, the Junior class won the overall competition.

December quickly arrived and our class prepared for Interclass Dramatics. We worked hard to uphold our reputation as the class presenting the best play. Our hard work allowed us to capture the title once again with our play "The Times of Our Lives." In addition to this, three of our actors were awarded for their dramatic acting ability — Alison Christie — Best Actress, John Alzapiedi — Best Actor, and Adam Bruso — Best Supporting Actor.

We now prepared for the final dance of our high school years — the Senior Hop which was to be held at Turner Hall. We selected "Famous Final Scene" as our theme and we danced till midnight to the music of Chimera. It was a tremendous success.

The fourth quarter passed rapidly and we were already upon our last few weeks at CHS. We looked forward to our Senior week, which included Baccalaureate, the class trip to Oak'n-Spruce in Lee, Mass., the Class Banquet at the White Cliffs in Northboro, Mass., and finally Graduation Day.

Now as we go beyond the walls of CHS we leave behind the record of our life at Clinton High School, This 1982 "Memorabilia."

Famous Final Scene

Our Senior Year had arrived and we were now faced with our last formal dance. With a beautifully decorated Turner Hall as our stage, the final scene was set for the evening. Chimera provided a nightful of music which added to the atmosphere of our "Famous Final Scene." Along with choosing a queen and her court, we also crowned a king and his court. Reigning as queen was Peggy Lipka, along with Katy Bell, Laury Thomas, Lisa Tambolleo, Cathy Johnson, Cindy Mahan and Lisa Silvester. Chosen as King was Barry Whitney, accompanied by Chuck Valley, Dan Martin, Jim Mitchell, John Alzapiedi, and Brian Frye as his Majesty's court. Regretfully we realized that the close of our Senior year was approaching, but the memories of evenings such as this one inspired us to look forward to the future with enthusiasm.

National Honor Society

May 11, 1982

The 1982 National Honor Society Induction ceremonies were very special. Along with the 32 juniors being inducted were 3 seniors. Kathleen C. O'Malley, Jean Kuzmeski, and Jacqueline Potas. Pamela Gannon lit the symbolic torch, and speaking about the 4 qualities of National Honor were Laurie Giovannucci, scholarship; Chris Grivakis, leadership; Beth Burgwinkle character; and William Newton, service. Patricia Fitzgerald was the chairperson at the ceremonies. Mr. Hazel presented the pins with the aid of Mrs. Frances Fitzgerald and Mrs. Cecile Marshall. James Lucci, president of the National Honor Society presented to the president of the Rotary Club, Mr. Robert Fitzgerald, a plaque given in gratitude for the years of service given by the Rotary Club. Mr. Lucci then presented to Miss Carol Ann Hamilton a plaque given for her dedication and time devoted, as our National Honor Society advisor.

Later that evening the senior members were escorted to the "International" for a banquet given in our honor by the Rotary Club.

Junior Marshalls

As newly inducted members of the National Honor Society, we were priveleged to serve as Junior Marshalls at the 1981 Baccalaureate and Graduation ceremonies. Our duties included program distribution, ushering, and providing a congenial atmosphere for the graduates and their guests.

To be chosen as Junior Marshalls was perhaps the greatest academic honor bestowed upon us. We were proud to serve as representatives of our class.

Being active participants in these ceremonies reinforced the reality that we too, would soon be proud graduates of Clinton High.

Dedication

The class of 1982 would like to take this opportunity to express their deepest appreciation to our class advisors, Miss Anne Lugi and Mr. James Brodrick. Without their constant dedication, guidance, and support, we would not have made it through these four years of high school. To say thank you seems so simple, yet no words can aptly describe the feelings we have for these two people.

As we now move on and leave our high school years behind, our memory of these years and our wonderful advisors, Miss Lugi and Mr. Brodrick, will remain forever.

To these people we give a sincere "Thank You" for all that they have done.

Football

This year's Football season proved to be one of surprise and disappointment.

The heartbreaking losses early in the season to Maynard, Hudson and Bartlett didn't dampen the spirits of the Gaels as they went on to defeat such powers as Milford and Marlboro, the eventual Midland League Champs, on Homecoming Day. This Homecoming Day victory was the first in three years. Joe Grealis and Chris Moran represented Clinton as they were selected to the Telegram and Gazette All-Star team.

We would like to extend many thanks to Mr. Cataldi, Mr. Lavelle and Mr. Wagner for providing the team with inspiration and support.

Cheerleaders

As cheerleaders, we strived to inspire the football and basketball teams, motivate the enthusiastic fans, and create a sense of pride and spirit throughout the entire student body. Although this required many long hours of practice, the unforgetable times we merited from cheering made our dedication worthwhile.

We would like to extend our deepest gratitude to our coach, Patricia Cafarelli, who instilled in us the desire and ambition to perform to the best of our ability, and at the same time, to enjoy our efforts.

It was another exciting year that resulted in many cherished memories especially for the three seniors, Eileen Gibbons, Ellen McQuoid, and Joan McNally who had cheered their last C.H.S. game.

As our careers as senior twirlers come to a close, we three seniors, Patty Novia, Lisa Milewski, and Mary Pat Sargent, have many fond memories to look back upon. We will never forget the hard work and good times that went along with performing for the Gael fans.

We would like to extend our sincere thanks to Judith Innamorati for making our four years at Clinton High School the best possible. Under her guidance, we have grown in many ways. These are memories that will last forever.

Flag Corps

When the Flag Corps was established four years ago, five Freshmen joined the squad. We recruited another class member our sophomore year.

In the four years filled with halftime shows, rallies, and parades, we acquired a wonderful advisor, Mrs. Bonnie Morrison, Through her consistency, we developed much more than just show routines. We gained lasting friendships that encouraged teamwork and pride.

The anticipation of our first performance and the sadness of our last, were tied by a common thread — we knew we must go on . . .

Mrs. Morrison

She once thought that "figure 8's",
Required ice or roller skates . . .
That a "lance was only used by knights,
In older days when they would fight.
And so when asked to help the team,
She hesitantly joined the scene,
"We need someone to yell at us,"
They said. (At that, she knew her stuff!)
They taught her more than she taught them,
Like when to hold and when to spin,
But quite soon she saw so much more,
Amid the flags of that fledgling corp.
She saw an effort beyond compare,
Team spirit that was always there,
With new routines week after week,
And drill 'till even she was weak,
She saw them halt in sheer frustration,
But always go on with dedication,
To count those beats and make corrections,
And settle for nothing but perfection.
Never was there any blame,
Place upon another's name,
And though the group would number twelve,
Each worked for one team, not for one's self.
As time went on she found her world,
To very much include "her girls."
Although they never won a prize,
Winners they were in her mind's eye.
Not for their talent in spinning a flag,
Not for the years of enduring her nags,
Not for the hours of practice like torture,
But for the pride and the joy they have brought her.

Love,
Mrs. M.

Helen Butler

Since 1978, when we first entered the high school, we found marching season under the direction of Mr. David Baer a most compelling and satisfying experience. From our first concert to the graduation ceremonies of our Senior Year, we found that the friendships we acquired would be everlasting.

For the 1981-82 season, we chose Evelyn Perez as our President and Cathy Johnson as our Vice-President. We will never forget all the wonderful years we had as C.H.S. band members.

CLINTON
HIGH SCHOOL AND

Field Hockey

Upon concluding our Senior season, the Clinton Field Hockey team may not be remembered as a winning team, but a team for its hard work, dedication, and vitality. Under the guidance of our Head Coach, Pamela Reni, we were thoroughly prepared for all our contests, as well as learning the value of team work. The hustle and desire of our Captain Mary Lemanski was invaluable to the development of our team. Also contributing to the team's competitive drive were Seniors Barbara Garry and Sheila Petricca.

Over the years we've learned that winning isn't everything, but the friendship and closeness we gained will be treasured forever.

Volleyball

As the senior members of this year's Clinton High Volleyball squad depart, we carry with us everlasting memories of hard work, tedious play, and finally the thrill of victory.

We gained much knowledge and inspiration through our coaches. Madeleine Beaulieu instructed us on the fundamentals of the game during our first three years, and Mrs. Sandra Boroweic spent long hours explicating the tactics involved to spike our way to victory in our last year.

We had a fine year despite the many problems that plagued the varsity squad and finished our final season with a 6-8 reocrd.

The varsity team consisted of Co-Captains Patti Fitzgerald and Jean Kuzmeski, who gave everything they had to the team and then some, along with spikers Helen Butler, Alison Christie, and Andrea Vetras, and setter Laurie Giovannucci.

One saying will forever be implanted in our memory — the never ending echo of "Bump-Set-Spike-Beat 'em."

Co-Captains

The 1981-82 Clinton High Basketball Team experienced a good season with an impressive overall record of 10 wins and 8 losses, capturing third place in the highly competitive Midland League. The climax of the season was an invitation to the Clark Tournament.

The Senior Team members — Pat Clisham, Chris Grivakis, Mike Gaughan, Jim Frisch, Chris Moran and Bart Murphy, would like to extend their gratitude to their coaches, Gerald Foley and Bernard Gaughan for the patience and support they provided throughout the season.

Captain and Coach

Jane Flanders — Captain

Evelyn Perez

The 1981-82 Girls' Basketball season was led under the direction of new coach, Tricia Nosek.

This year proved to be one of transition for the Gaels, who were unable to sustain a winning record. However, the spirits of the girls were never dampened.

Our two Seniors, Captain Jane Flanders, and Evelyn Perez, contributed a great deal to the team. Their hard work and dedication inspired the team to keep going in times of trouble.

The girls wish to extend their gratitude to Coach Patricia Nosek for all the knowledge and patience she instilled in them.

SOFTBALL

Captain, and Coach

Under the patient guidance of Coach Ceasar DiTillio, the 1981-82 Softball team demonstrated the desire and enthusiasm that constitutes an ambitious squad. As a rebuilding team, they showed great determination and aggression on the field, despite an overall disappointing record.

The team was led by Captain Ellen McQuoid, who received strong support from the nucleus of the squad: Judy Bailey, Alison Christie, Eileen Gibbons, Jean Kuzmeski, Lisa Silvester and Andrea Vetras. Throughout the seasons, these seven seniors gained memorable experiences and friendships that will always remain invaluable.

BASEBALL

Throughout a competitive season, the 1981-82 Gael baseball team demonstrated the determination and hustle that typifies a spirited Clinton High team. Despite a disappointing record, the Gaels, under the leadership of Coach Bernie Gaughan, displayed all the qualities and fortitude of a winning squad.

Although it was not a championship season, we congratulate Co-Captains Greg Nugent and Jay Peete, and senior Tom Welch for their dedicated efforts and unending enthusiasm.

Best wishes to Coach Bernie Gaughan, and good luck to next year's promising team!

TRACK

Under the guidance of coaches
rchie Cataldi and Bob Wagner, s year's track team ran a tough ason with great enthusiasm. The ıcksters were led by six capable niors, whose untiring efforts re-lted in a commendable season.
ney were Jim Frisch, Mike ughan, Tom Harmon, Mike tricca, Bob Williamson, and nie Regonini.

It was an especially rewarding ex-rience for Mike Petricca and b Williamson as they excelled in mpetive meets. In the Districts
d the Midland League Meet, tricca placed second in the 440,
d his swiftness also merited him
th place in the 440 for the Dis-ct E All-Class Meet. William-n's efforts enabled him to cap-re first place in the javelin for e Districts and the Midland ague Meet.

GOLF

Coach Donald Burgwinkle's first year with the golf squad proved promising as the team sported a 6-5-2 season. The team was led by a sole, but experienced senior, Bart Murphy. Although the competition was fierce and the breaks few, their games were well played, and all deserve praise for their dedication to the sport.

Graduation

Baccalaureate

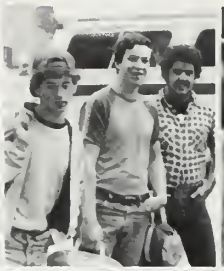
May 30, 1982

Baccalaureate Sunday, held on May 30, 1982 in the Mitchell Memorial Auditorium, marked the beginning of our Senior Week activities. The Reverend Philip Bauman, of the first Congregational Church, gave the invocation, address, and Benediction. Our class song "Here We Are" was sung with great pride as we realized that our graduation would soon be a reality.

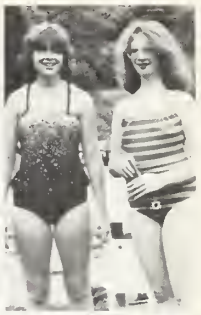
Class Trip

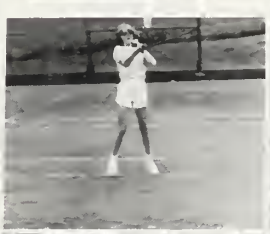
June 1, 1982

Our class trip, held at the Oak 'n' Spruce Resort in Lee Mass., was an event that will long be remembered by all. We enjoyed basketball, softball, tennis, volleyball, frisbee, golf, swimming, and delicious food. Although the trip was enjoyed by all, it was also a day of sadness as we realized that soon all of us would be heading in opposite directions.



82





Class Banquet White Cliffs June 3, 1982

On Thursday, June 3, 1982, our Class Banquet was held at the White Cliffs, in Northboro. We feasted on chicken, and then proceeded to dance the night away. Glass Leaf provided the music, and everyone had a super time. We have some great memories of this night, which passed by all too quickly. We soon realized that this would be the last evening we would share together, as the close and spirited Class of 1982.

Graduation
June 5, 1982

June 5, 1982 marked the culmination of our High School careers. Graduation ceremonies were held in the Town Hall and even the inclement weather couldn't put a damper on this long awaited and special day. Commencement speeches were given by Laurie Giovannucci, Pam Gannon, Chris Grivakis, and Beth Burgwinkle, and before we knew it, the big moment had arrived and we received our diplomas. The past four year's were now just a memory as we became alumni of Clinton High School. Truly, "foundations have been laid for us to build upon and now we are able to stand on our own."

"Here We Are"

(from the song "Here I Am" by Air Supply)

Here we are
We're Seniors and its time to say good-bye.
In these four years we've changed in many ways,
We'll always remember high school days.

The future's here.
We're strong enough to face it without fear.
Tommorow waits for us like morning's dawn.
Our time has come, now we must move on.

As we are departing,
Our dreams are just starting.

Foundations have been laid for us to build upon.
Now we are able to stand on our own.
Those memories will always be part of us,
Deep down inside,
As we build our dreams.

We're on our own.
We never could have come this far alone.
We owe so much to those along the way,
Much more than words could ever say.

Our future is rising
Beyond the horizon.

Foundations have been laid for us to build upon.
Now we are able to stand on our own.
Those memories will always be part of us,
Deep down inside.
As we build our dreams.

Four Years (A Reflection)

I.

I am the Dawn.
No yesterdays exist for me;
No distant morrow shades my light.
I represent Eternity-
Beginning now,
I am Today.

II.

"Birth is mine," the jester cries-
A yawning Court is called to rise.
The dwindling awe of last year's ways
Is lost within the second phase.
Superior, the new found sense
Of hearts secure in confidence.
Experience will come in time,
The rest is merely pantomime.

III.

Freedom Train shook into town,
Excitement gripped the air,
And we were tempted glory-bound
With no time left to spare.
Freedom Train — we climbed aboard;
Time flashed by the glass-
Daring dreams, like cargo stored,
On our way, at last.

IV.

All those scenes
As if . . . in haze
rolling past, rolling onward
Ever-rolling days,
Fondly held
To be . . . released
Touching souls, touching memories
Last but never least.
These will stay with us
Should tomorrow turn to dust . . .

Deborah Edwards '82
